Warlukurlangu Artists

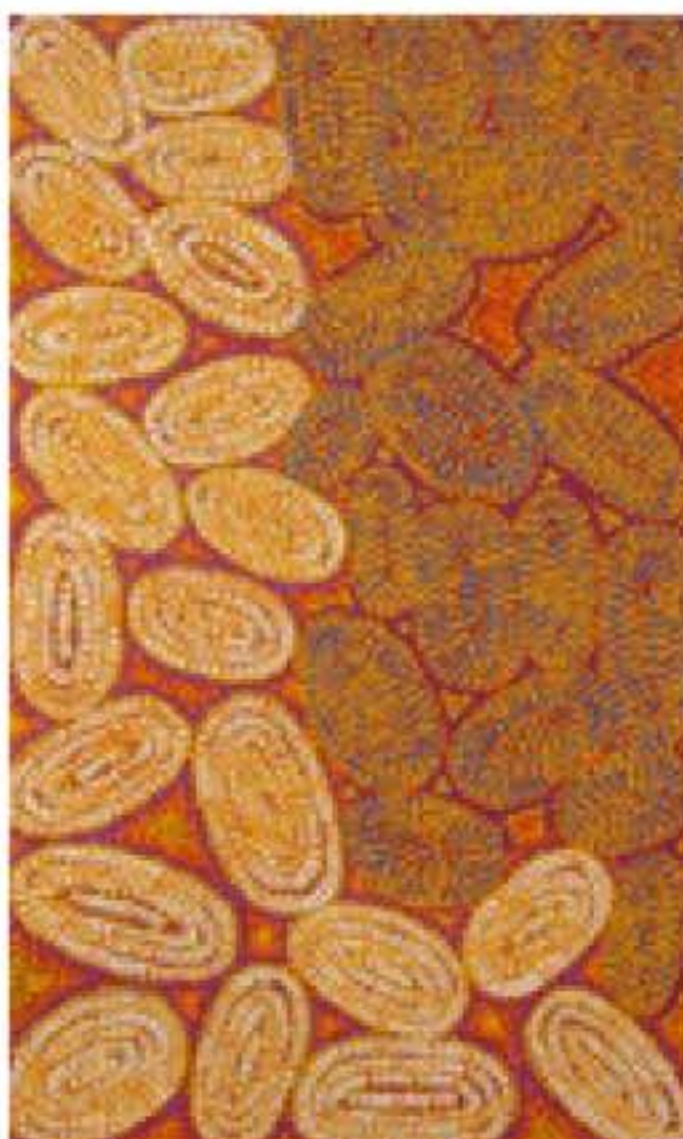

New Paintings

22nd April 2014 - 10th May 2014

Warlukurlangu Artists operates from a small gallery and workshop in the heart of Yuendumu - a township on Aboriginal land 300 dusty kilometres from Alice Springs in central Australia. Warlukurlangu was established as an artist's collective in 1985 to represent the interests of hundreds of Australian Aboriginal artists from the Warlpiri and Anmatyerr language groups at Yuendumu and surrounding homelands and communities. Warlukurlangu is a Warlpiri word meaning "belonging to fire" and is also the name of an important ceremonial and sacred site a few kilometres west of Yuendumu.
