

swell

Melissa Boughey Art

Taking a walk around the perimeter (internal rotation) by Australian artist Melissa Boughey is a stunning representation of the artist's connection with the natural environment. Colour, tone and texture bring this abstract piece to life.

Medium - Oil and beeswax on board.
Dimensions - 62cm(w) x 62cm(h).
Frame - Shadow box framed in raw oak.

Priced at $1,400.

Spotted at:
Monsoon Living: 174 King St, Newcastle

Luggy by Olli Ella

If you are heading to the Newcastle Farmers Markets this weekend, Olli Ella's Big Luggy Basket is your perfect companion. Hand-woven from natural Rattan, the Big Luggy is a shopping cart like no other. Spoilt for choice, the original small Luggy comes in a bunch of vintage inspired shades. This tiny wheeled basket for your mini-me is perfect for storing and toting their most prized possessions. Pictured here is the Big Luggy in Natural Rattan ($189) and Luggy in Mint, Rose and Straw ($89).

Spotted at: Betty Mim: 167 Darby St, Cooks Hill

House Profile

Age of house:

1919 / extension 2010.

Who lives there?

David and Tasha, sons Ned and Louie, and their Schnauzer named Billy.

Favourite thing about living in Cooks Hill:

Newcastle is such a beautiful city and given our close proximity we especially love being able to walk and cycle to everything.

The renovations so far, and what's next:

We renovated in 2010 so our house could do with a repaint from top to toe and although we've chosen fairly timeless finishes I would love to redo our bathrooms at some stage and sand and oil our timber floors.

Favourite room and why:

Our main kitchen and living would be my favourite room as it's where we spend most of our time together.

Favourite piece in your home and why:

My favourite piece at the moment is this stunning painting by WA artist Melissa Boughey; Coastal Foray: Spring in Step, 2018, (oil and beeswax on board) hangs above our fireplace. I sell her work in Monsoon Living. As soon as this one arrived I struggled to take my eyes off it. 🍷